TOURIST MAP

Our region, located in the South-West of France, on the borders of the departments of Tarn-et-Garonne, Lot-et-Garonne and Gers, and traversed by the Garonne river, serves as a link between the regions of Occitania and Nouvelle Aquitaine. This traditional region is full of surprises : you'll be amazed by the wealth of riches on offer, delighted by the beautiful villages with their remarkable heritage and charmed by the variety of landscapes.

WELCOME TO LES DEUX RIVES !

STROLL AROUND THE MARKET

Tuesday morning is market day in Valence d'Agen, a tradition that dates back to 1283, when the walled village was founded. Delicious smells, combine with good humour, in a colourful setting. A whole range of regional produce is on display: sun-drenched fruit and vegetables from the Garonne valley, farm-reared chickens, local cooked meats and, of course, the stars of the South-West food scene, a region renowned for the art of good eating and living: duck confit and foie gras!
Every Saturday morning, a farmers' market is held in the covered market in Place Nationale.
There's also a market on Sunday morning in Auvillar and Thursday morning in Lamagistère.

AUVILLAR, ONE OF THE " MOST BEAUTIFUL VILLAGES IN FRANCE "

Auvillar, a stopover point on the road to Santiago de Compostela, is easily recognized by its circular corn exchange in the heart of the village. The traditional dwellings, made from a combination of red brick and white stone, lend the place a warm, and distinctive, atmosphere. The 18th century was a golden age for this old Gallo-Roman city thanks to the presence of its earthenware industry and port, from which it was able to ship merchandise to Bordeaux.
The magnificent view of the Garonne (from place du Château or the Tourist Office) and the recently restored Saint-Pierre church, is worth the trip alone.
Be sure not to miss the various art and handicraft galleries, the numerous restaurants and lovely Sunday morning market.

DUNES

A 13th-century walled village, is built around the old central covered market. Explore the old weavers' district, place des Martyrs, and the half-timbered houses. In the foyer of the town hall, you can learn the history of the men of the village hanged during the Second World War and visit the archaeological collection uncovered at the site of the Tour des Templiers (Knights Templar Tower). Monday to Friday, 9am to 12.30pm and Wednesday 9am to 12.30pm and 4 to 7pm. Pamphlet available from the town hall reception. Contact: +33 (0)5 63 39 90 51

VALENCE D'AGEN: 13TH CENTURY

walled town. 13th century walled town. Don't miss its three wash houses, covered markets, dovecote, port, walks along the Canal des Deux Mers and market on Tuesday and Saturday morning.

A PARADISE FOR CAMPER VANNERS

Most villages offer perfect conditions for camper van stopovers. There are small, well-secured, parking areas in our camper-van friendly village centres. There's also a municipal campsite in Valence d'Agen with a nearby public pool, open in summer. (Valence d'Agen Campsite, 600 Route des Charretiers, 82400 Valence d'Agen - +33 (0)6 19 81 28 23).

SAINT-ANTOINE PONT D'ARRATZ

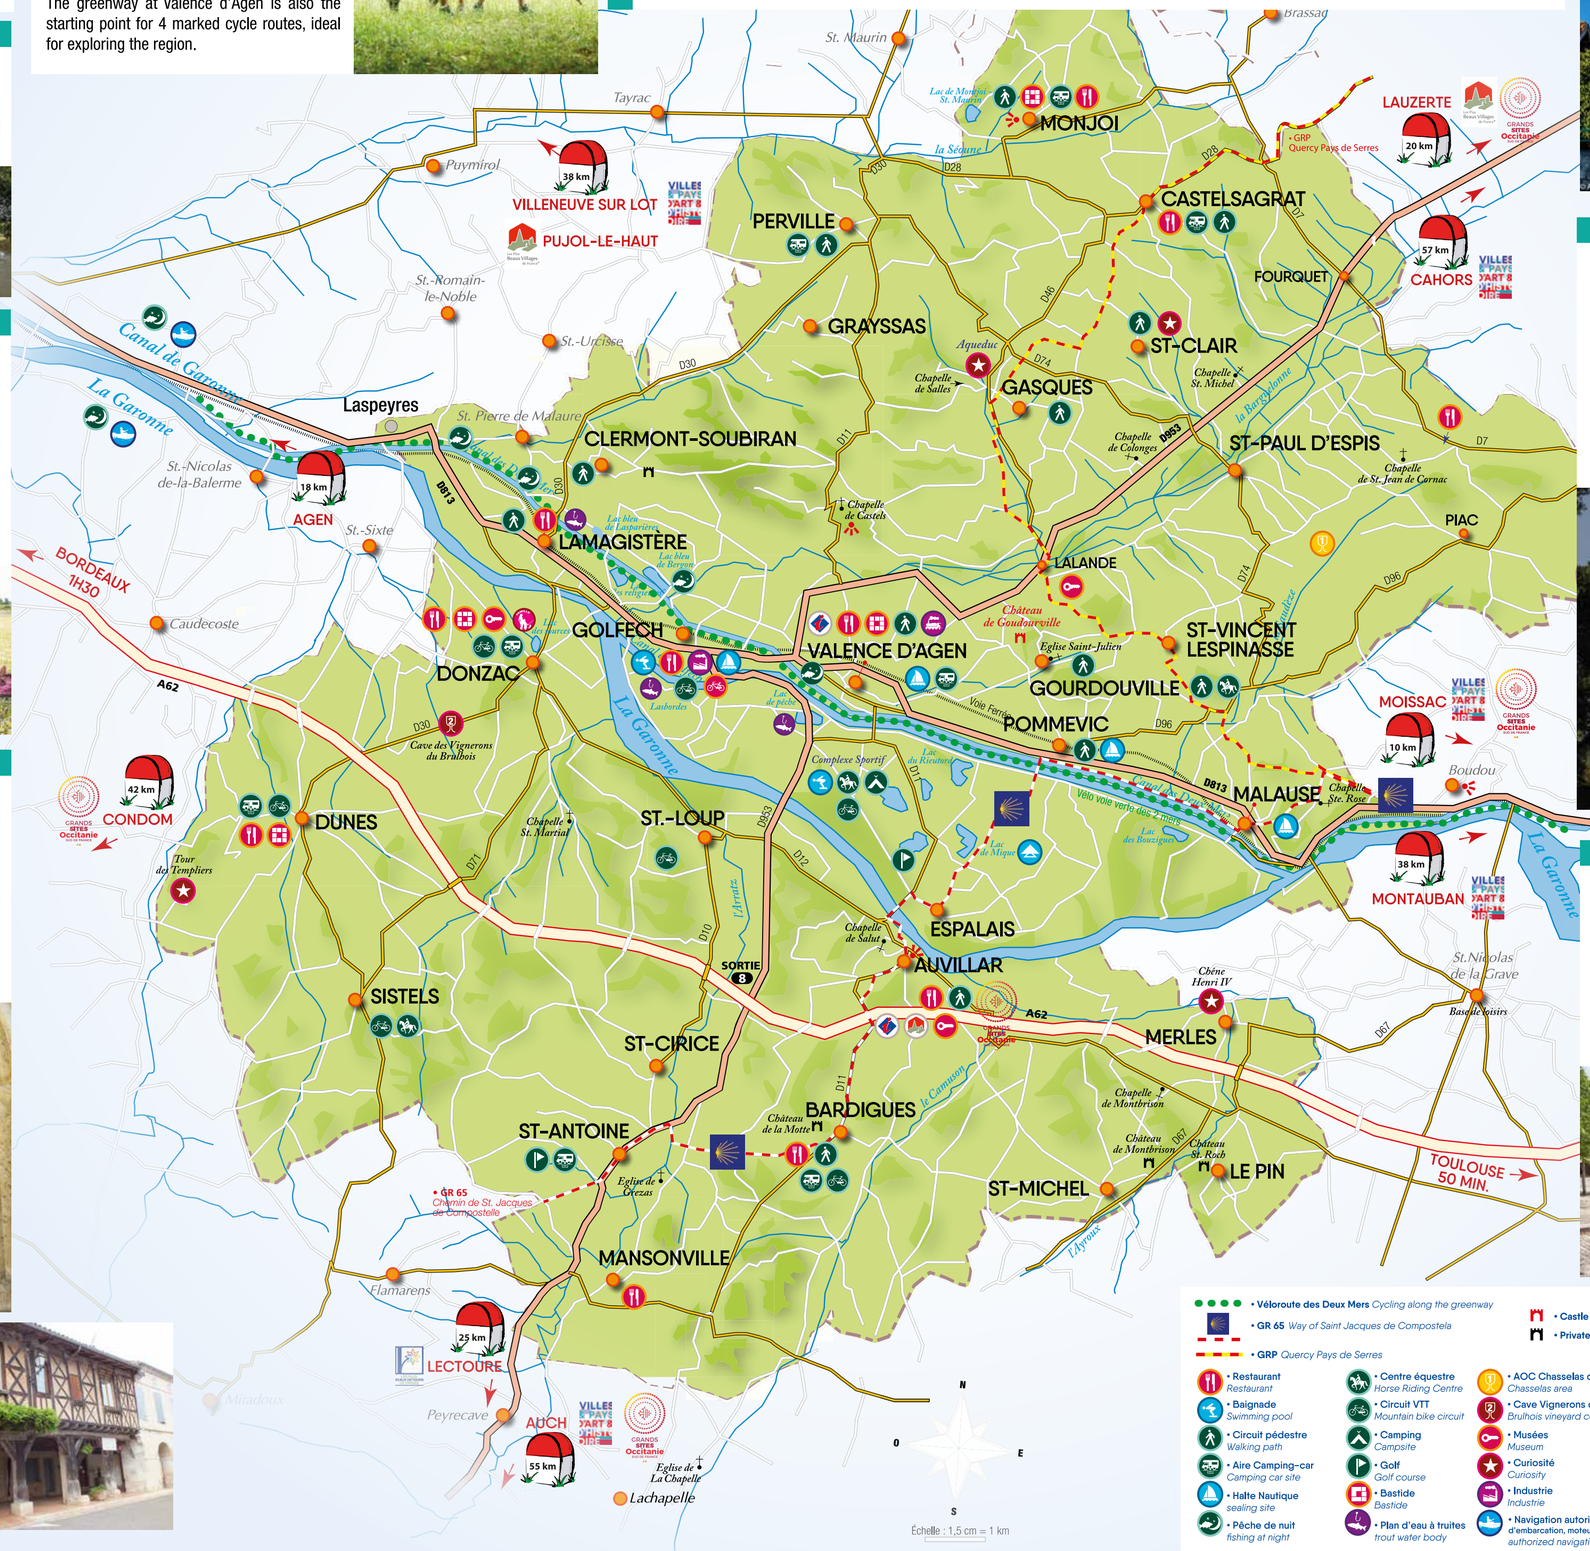
The village, located on the outskirts of the department of Gers, is a stopover point on the road to Santiago de Compostela. The old, imposing commandery is evidence of the presence of the Antonines who resided in the village for more than 600 years. The old town gate provides access to the Medieval town and the church with its amazing Roman gateway and quatrefoil panel !

WALKS AROUND LES DEUX RIVES

The region features 18 different hiking trails and is traversed by the GR65, the Santiago de Compostela pilgrimage trail.
Set off and explore this iconic route, along the stage linking Moissac to Auvillar, and then Saint-Antoine.
If, however, you prefer to cycle, you can follow the greenway along the Canal des Deux Mers. The greenway at Valence d'Agen is also the starting point for 4 marked cycle routes, ideal for exploring the region.

STEP BACK IN TIME AT THE CONSERVATOIRE DES MÉTIERS D'AUTREFOIS (MUSEUM OF ANCIENT TRADES AND PROFESSIONS) IN DONZAC

A journey back in time! Wander through the Museum of Ancient Trades and Professions and discover its incredible collection of 20,000 objects - from grocery stores, haberdasheries, hairdressers, farriers, candle makers and bakers - depicting daily life from the 19th to the early 20th century. Explore the world of vineyards and agricultural machinery and find out more about rural life. There's also a remarkable collection of old motors for car enthusiasts. You really can have fun here... There are different trails designed for different age groups: from Rosalie, the little mouse to Zig, the Scarecrow and Murder at the Conservatoire. It's a fun place to visit.
This summer, there will be an exhibition devoted to the subject of sound in the Museum of Ancient Trades and Professions
Donzac. Tel +33 (0)5 63 29 21 96
From May to September: Wednesday to Sunday, 2 to 6pm July and August: open everyday, 10am to 12.30pm and 2 to 6.30pm

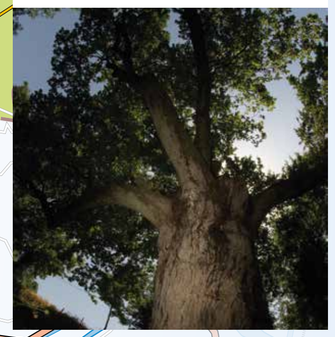


MONTJOI

Montjoi is a 13th century, walled town, perched on a hilltop overlooking the Seoune valley. You can take a tour of the town, along the sentries' walkway, using the orientation table to identify landmarks, then wander around the small streets and admire the magnificent half-timbered houses.

OUT-OF-THE-ORDINARY : HENRI IV'S OAK TREE.

The Merles oak tree is a genuine curiosity: a gigantic, ancient relic. On the 10th July 1579, Henri de Navarre, escorted by 44 cavalrymen, his wife, Queen Margo, and a succession of noble knights and ladies, stopped under the shade of the oak tree, which bears his name, in Merles. The full story of the huge meal, that he had the previous day, is chronicled just a few metres from this centuries-old tree.



CASTELSAGRAT

Delightful 13th century walled village with 14th century covered arcades lining the main square and 14th century church with magnificent reredos from the Saint Raymond de Toulouse college chapel. Castelsagrat was built according to a geometric design, typical of walled villages : central square with flower lined well, covered arcades and a fortified church etc.
